CRAIG CALLS LA GUARDIA 'LIAR' AND 'PUP' AT THEIR DAILY ROW OVER BUDGET

"Talk Shows You Are Not a Gentleman," Aldermanic
President's Reply.

HYLAN CAN'T STOP TILT.

Trouble Starts When Comptroller Is Accused of False
Statement About Autos.

At the beginning of the last public hearing to-day by the Board of Estimates on the 1921 budget, Aldermanic President F. H. La Guardia announced that he wished to have entered upon the record three letters from surety companies stating that they were ready and willing to bond city paymasters riding in city owned cars. His object in doing so, he explained, was to prove that when Comptroller Craig said yesterday that city paymasters riding in city owned cars could not obtain insurance against hold-ups or accidents he was uttering an untruth.

Yesterday's argument started when the Comptroller moved for the elimination from the budget of a $1,300 appropriation for a chauffeur for La Guardia's city owned car. La Guardia declared that the Comptroller should eliminate from his departmental budget a $10,000 contract for auto hire inasmuch as the city has a municipal taxi service. It was in answer to this that the Comptroller claimed, according to the stenographic record, that the surety companies could not bond paymasters riding in cars from the municipal garage.

"Comptroller Craig, you made a statement yesterday," said La Guardia, "and when you made it you knew it was utterly false. I have fought you with the people. You made that statement for the purpose of protecting one of your contractors, one object to my reading letters from surety companies stating they are willing to bond city paymasters riding in city owned cars. You tremble at the very thought of my reading them."

"You are a dirty, stinking little pig," shouted the Comptroller at La Guardia.

Mayor Hylan, who sat between the warring officials, banged his gavel. "All right," shouted Craig, "that you are a dirty, stinking little pig."

"You sit there in fear and trembling and you are afraid to let me read this surety company letters discrediting you."

GIVES EVICTION RECORDS TO PROVE RENT LAWS LEGAL

Passed Under Police Powers of Legislature in Emergency,
Says Lawyer.

In support of his contention that the existing rent laws passed by the New York Legislature in Special Session are constitutional because they were passed under the police powers of the Legislature in an emergency, Attorney David L. Poffack, opposing a Federal injunction, laid the following table of eviction cases in Municipal Courts before Judge Mack, Mantua and Learned Hand in the United States District Court, sitting in equity proceedings today to prove that an emergency existed.

	1919	1920
Manhattan	18,842	37,293
Brooklyn	17,294	15,419
Queens	2,825	1,699
Richmond	377	354
Total	39,538	54,765

In addition to these 1920 cases, 60,000 tenants were ordered to vacate Oct. 1 irrespective of rent.

The case was brought before the court by the action of the Marcus Brown Construction Company, a $125,000 corporation of New York, owning an apartment house at No. 215 West 21st Street, in incorporating under the laws of New Jersey as the Marcus Brown Holding Company with a capital of $1,000.

The company seeks to eject from the apartment house Arnold Pollack, the old lease for whose apartment on the eleventh floor expired Sept. 28. The apartment was leased to a new tenant, but Pollack refused to move. The New Jersey corporation contends that the New York law is unconstitutional in that it is confiscatory, impairs the right of contract and compels involuntary service.

A great array of attorneys appeared for the argument. J. A. Seligman, for the Marcus Brown Holding Company of New Jersey has as associates former Supreme Court Justice George J. Ingraham, representing the New York Real Estate Board of Brokers and Louis Marshall retained by the Apartment House Owners Association who gave notice that he would file a brief on the point raised during the argument.

To-Day's Cartoon by Gov. Cox

Gov. Cox, discussing to-day's cartoon with Mr. Edgren, said: "We will go into the League. We'll take our place in the Council of the Nations. When we plant our flag beside the flags of other nations it will be a beautiful picture, a symbol of the new day that has dawned, and the angels again can sing 'Peace on earth, good will to man' as they did twenty centuries ago."

$4,000 Legs Win Case for Fair Owner

Woman Proves to Court One
Calf is Bigger Than Other,
Since Taxi Accident.

With the loss of her shirt elevated above her knees, pretty Mrs. Angelina Maufierio, her face mantled with blushes and her eyes downcast, slowly made a full revolution on the witness stand in Justice Bar's part of the Supreme Court in the Bronx today while the judge, jury and spectators gazed at a pair of diaphanous silk stockings and the contents thereof.

Then Phineas Lewinson, a lawyer, measured the circumference of Mrs. Maufierio's right leg, at the calf, with a piece of string and the circumference of her left leg at the calf, with another piece of string and showed that the right leg of Mrs. Maufierio at the calf is one inch larger than the left leg at a similar location. Following which the jury retired and in a few minutes brought in a verdict giving Mrs. Maufierio $4,000 for personal injuries sustained from the Terminal and Town Taxi Company.

Mrs. Maufierio was married.

N. Y. NAT'L GUARD TO NUMBER 40,000

War Department Plans Same
Strength as it Had When
It Was Drafted.

ALBANY, Oct. 25.—Under the plan of reorganization of the National Guard, as announced in Washington, New York State will be expected to maintain approximately a guard of approximately 40,000 officers and men, it was said at the office of the Adjutant General today.

This was the strength of the guard when it was drafted into Federal service for the World War.

month ago and lives at No. 1813 Crotona Avenue. On Feb. 17, 1917, when she was Angelina Basso, she was struck by a taxi cab at 24th Street and Astor Court and, after a long hospital treatment, brought suit against the Terminal and Town Taxi Company for $10,000, alleging that, as a result of injuries sustained from the taxi cab, her right leg will always be larger than the left.

Dr. Cornelius J. Egan of No. 301 East 64th Street, swore to the truth of her contention during the trial today. But in order to furnish visual evidence to the judge and the jury the charming plaintiff, at the suggestion of Mr. Lewinson, her counsel, produced Exhibit A (right) and Exhibit B (left) simultaneously, as shown described.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—A "vengeance expedition" of eight Sinn Feiners en route to England to attempt reprisals for the death of Lord Mayor MacSwiney was apprehended today at Kingstown, Ireland, the Irish Office announced.

The eight men, described as "desperate characters," were seized by soldiers as they were about to board a boat for Liverpool. They were said to be wearing Sinn Fein uniforms under their civilian garments and to carry a number of handguns. The party was held on a criminal conspiracy in reprisal to MacSwiney's death, the Office declared. They were believed to be from Cork.

GREAT FUNERAL IN LONDON FOR LORD MAYOR M'SWINEY IS ARRANGED FOR THURSDAY

Authorities Reported to Have Agreed
There Shall Be No Interference,
Provided Sinn Fein Do Not Take Part—Irish Cities to Pay Tribute.

LONDON, Oct. 25 (United Press).—Impressive funeral honors will be accorded Terence MacSwiney, who began life as a clerk and died in a spectacular manner for Ireland, after a remarkable hunger strike or seventy-four days.

The Home Office promised to-day there will be no interference with plans of Irish leaders, who announced that MacSwiney's body will lie in state in St. George's Cathedral, to be carried later in solemn procession to entrain for the journey to an Irish grave.

Officials said the only restriction on the funeral services will be that no Sinn Fein firing squad will be permitted to officiate at the grave. One of MacSwiney's last requests was that the funeral orations be pronounced in Gaelic. There was no official opposition to that.

The Deputy Lord Mayor of Cork arrived here to-day with a body-guard of fifty Sinn Fein soldiers and representatives of many Irish societies. It was reported that Dan Egan, the Irish Parliament, may attend the services in a body, only those members especially sought to the police remaining away.

After the inquest, expected to be concluded Wednesday morning, MacSwiney's body will be taken to St. George's Cathedral. It will lie in state, under guard of his followers, until 11 A. M. Thursday. At that hour solemn high mass will be celebrated by Archbishop Mannix and Bishop Crotty of Portsmouth.

Late in the afternoon a funeral procession will be formed to pass through many of the principal streets en route to a railway station.

Police promised every assistance and asked co-operation by the Sinn Fein to prevent any unpleasant demonstration. They urged that the marchers refrain from carrying flags or banners or conversing with spectators.

With three of Ireland's hunger strikers now dead, it was reported three more in the Cork jail were near collapse. Joseph Murphy, the third to die, passed away in his seventy-sixth day of fasting.

LONDON FEARS WIDE EFFECTS OF M'SWINEY'S DEATH

Government Imprisoned Him as Criminal and Made Him Martyr,
Says News.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Articles on the death of MacSwiney occupied much space in this morning's newspapers, regardless of their political views. The Times, which is hostile to the Government's Irish policy and the Irish bill prepared by the Cabinet, attacks the Government, especially in the matter of reprisals. It expresses the fear that the effects of MacSwiney's death will not be confined to the British Isles.

While asserting the Lord Mayor was a "magnificent, but sincere, patriot dying for his convictions," the Morning Post says:

"We cannot perceive what relation can exist between suicide and martyrdom. We cannot forget the many loyal servants of their country who have been shot down in the mere performance of their duty in Ireland, and for whose memory there is no meretricious appeal nor fallacious sentimentality."

The Daily News says the Government imprisoned MacSwiney as a crime and announced that he was a martyr.
